D. Attractions

1. Towson University Music for the Stage presents three comic one-act operas: The Impresario and The Goose of Cairo by W. A. Mozart and The Telephone by Gian Carlo Menotti.

Friday and Saturday at 8 pm, Sunday at 2 pm. Center for the Arts Harold J. Kaplan Concert Hall Tickets: $17; $12 seniors; $8 students.

Online ticketing: <http://www.tuboxoffice.com/goteanddudi3.html>

Productions are presented fully staged. The Impresario is Mozart's comic intermezzo dealing with two dueling divas and their claim to be the best singer in town. The Goose of Cairo is a comic telling of the classic Trojan horse myth. In it, an amorous lover dupes the father of his beloved by tricking him into believing the dire predictions of a talking mechanical goose shipped direct from exotic Egypt! The Telephone is a whimsical story of Lucy's obsession with talking on the phone while her shy boyfriend tries desperately to ask her the most important question of their lives. Phillip Collister and Theresa Bickham, stage and musical directors. Rachel Roulet, piano and assistant musical director.

2. Towson University Dance Company presents Innovation.

Friday and Saturday at 8 pm; Sunday at 2 pm at Stephens Hall Theater. Tickets: $20; $10 seniors and students; Free tickets for 12 and under. Online ticketing
