

American Musicological Society - Capital Chapter Spring Meeting
April 2, 2011

Whittall Pavilion, Library of Congress (Thomas Jefferson Building)
1st Street SE, between Independence Avenue and East Capitol Street
Washington, DC 20540

Directions

Directions via metro, car & train at: <http://www.loc.gov/visit/directions.html>

The Whittall Pavilion is located on the Ground floor of the Jefferson Building. Once you enter through security at the carriage entrance to the Jefferson Building (on 1st Street), turn left at the Information Desk and follow the hallway to the Whittall Pavilion, which will be on your right (just before Coolidge Auditorium).

Please note that all visitors entering any Library building must pass through a metal detector and have their belongings screened by an x-ray machine. All those exiting any Library building must pass through an electronic theft detection system and open all bags, etc., for inspection.

Metered parking around the Library is highly monitored and your risk for getting a ticket is quite high. Your best bet for garage parking is likely the garage at Union Station (60 Massachusetts Ave. NE, Washington, DC 20002), about a 15-minute walk to the Library.

Accommodations

Those looking for accommodations near the Library could not get closer than the Capitol Hill Suites, 200 C Street, S.E., (800) 424-9195, (202) 543-6000, <http://www.capitolhillsuites.com/>

Restaurants

See list on following page.

Local Performances

Unfortunately, the Library of Congress is not hosting a performance in Coolidge Auditorium the weekend of April 2. There are a great many performance venues in DC - far too many for me to list. I'd suggest checking websites for The Kennedy Center (www.kennedy-center.org) and The Embassy Series (www.embassyseries.org), among many others.
