Application checklist

- Written abstract (1,000 words maximum) describing the project and its contribution to musical scholarship.
- Copy of the article or chapter, or, if a longer project, a representative chapter or component (10,000 words maximum). Editors of collections should submit a complete table of contents with list of contributors and the introductory chapter of the collection.
- Copy of a contract or letter of agreement from the journal editor or publisher (or analogous person) indicating final acceptance for publication and including the clauses that stipulate the author's assumption of the expenses for which the subvention is requested.
- An itemized list of expenses for which the subvention would be applied.
- Copies of the readers' reports and authors' responses (with names redacted). Include the dates the reports were written.

Order the materials according to the above checklist.
