Benjamin Cooke – As Now the Shades of Eve 1790? Words by Thomas Park?

As now the shades of eve imbrown
The scene where pensive Poets rove;
From care remote, from envy's frown
The joys of inward calm I prove.
What holy strains around me swell,
No wildly rude tumultuous sound;
They fix the soul in magic spell,
Soft, soft let me tread this favour'd ground.
Sweet is the gale that breathes the spring
Sweet thro' the Vale yon winding stream,
Are the notes love's warblers sing,
But sweeter, friendship's solemn theme.
